Reasons for Release:

A) ~~sincere~~ I believe I've shown that ~~I can~~ I can be a productive member to the community by examples as:

1) I've obtained housing for myself/children since December of 2013. (Note: I was only two months back & still on probation)

2) I've held employment til present day taking care of financial obligations.

3) Been responsible as to meeting w/ assigned aftercare.

~~4) I've improved from~~

B) I've recently been able to re-unite ~~w/ my family~~ w/ my family

1) we currently are receiving couples therapy & family sessions

2) I have goals to be met that I've realistically set for myself like starting a small business in Auto service or food service or both.

3) I don't want to be another number to add to the rate of recidivism.

3 life attempt?

- As of ~~early~~ mid March, I've been negative in UA testing.

- I received medical attention as to what I've been struggling w/ (Depression) & have shown major progress.

- I value life unconditionally & the many blessings it holds. My family, other half, children, & freedom.

EXHIBIT A

Bottom line: I'm doing what I should be doing to move forward in a positive/ healthy way. Yes I've had a few bumps in my road, & I'm working on taking one addressing it & solving it. I see my life ahead of me being happy & successful & a productive member of society. However, I can't be any of that if I was remain idle or stagnant as a detainee/inmate. I can make everyone proud. I will prove & show myself that I can do it.

Re: United States v. Joshua J.C. Ulloa, Criminal Cases Nos. CR 07-00111 and 08-00013,
District Court of Guam

Dear Judge Manibusan,

I own the Desperado restaurant. It is located in Tumon. Joshua J.C. Ulloa is an employee. He is a chef. I fully understand that Mr. Ulloa is detained. Mr. Ulloa's job, however, is waiting for him. His employment would resume upon his release.
